

The impact our volunteers have on the people they meet with in prison continues to inspire us. God is working through them! This summer one of the W2 volunteers shared this story:

“N was doing very well this evening and wanted to do some of her Bible Study questions together with me. We had great fun together looking up Scripture passages in her Bible (I think she received her Bible from the chaplain) and taking turns reading them aloud. She said she had been reading Revelation again. I suggested portions of Acts about the life and teachings of Jesus so she put her book mark there and said she wanted to. We talked about loving God, loving your neighbour, Jesus being born and dying, that he existed before that, why he had to come as a man, and that he lived as a man until the age of 33. She loved hearing about it all. Reading scripture with N was a highlight. It was such a privilege to read with her; she is not familiar with the Bible and she was taking it all in, finding it very interesting and really enjoying it and understanding it. There was total freedom in our readings and conversation.”

HOLDING THE KEYS

Losing keys can leave you disorientated and helpless. Keys are meant to open or lock doors.

Have you ever consider that you might be the key of liberation, love, comfort, etc. to someone.

Let's chat about being a key volunteer and partner with M2W2.
